

Ethos Statement - Christ the King Catholic Voluntary Academy

'The academy was founded by and is part of the Catholic Church.

The academy is to be conducted as a Catholic academy in accordance with Canon Law and teachings of the Catholic Church, and in accordance with the Trust Deed of the Diocese of Nottingham and in particular:

- Religious education is to be in accordance with the teachings, doctrines, discipline and general and particular practices of the Catholic Church
- Religious worship is to be in accordance with the rites, practices, discipline and liturgical norms of the Catholic Church and at all times the academy is to serve as a witness to the Catholic faith in Our Lord Jesus Christ.'